

Interfaith and Spiritual Exploration Graduate Coordinator

Description:

Reporting to the Director of the Office of Social Justice, Inclusion, and Conflict Resolution (SJICR), the Graduate Coordinator provides support and assistance in the development and implementation of programs and initiatives to promote a campus environment that is inclusive of student's religious and spiritual identities. The ideal candidate will help support students' exploration of their spiritual/religious identity, and advocate for pluralism at Rowan. This person assists in maintaining a high level of efficiency and effectiveness in developing resources that will advance understanding and appreciation of the contributions of communities of faith. The Graduate Coordinator helps to oversee all aspects of the Interfaith and Spiritual Exploration Center (ISEC) and provides general support for all inclusion initiatives of the SJICR.

Principle Duties and Responsibilities:

- Support the coordination, advertising and execution of ISEC events, activities, and trainings
- Support development, implementation and coordination of activities such as Chats with Chaplains, community service projects, Better Together Day, and ISEC Speakers series.
- Develop appropriate, effective and beneficial relationships with ISEC program participants
- Assist with general supervision of SJICR undergraduate office assistants
- Serve on the Interfaith Council
- Maintain day to day communication with undergraduate coordinators and affiliated student organization leadership
- Maintain knowledge of policies and procedures of successful faith-based support and inclusive programming
- Assist in maintaining and updating the Interfaith and Spiritual Exploration Center's webpage and social media outlets
- Oversee the development and dissemination of ISEC related newsletters or blogs
- Provide support for the review and reporting of ISEC program participant's academic performance
- Support ongoing data collection and assessment related programmatic and student learning outcomes
- Support development and implementation of other social justice and inclusion initiatives of the SJICR

Education:

- Bachelor in Religious Studies, Education, Counseling, Psychology, or other related field
- Must be a fulltime graduate student in good academic standing making reasonable academic progress toward a graduate degree at Rowan University

Qualifications:

- At least one year related experience in work related to student support, interfaith, or religious services
- Demonstrated knowledge and experience working with , interfaith, or religious, and other diverse student populations including: under-represented students, students with disabilities, students of color, and women
- Demonstrated soundness in judgment, decision making skills, and ability to maintain confidential sensitive student information
- Demonstrated attention to detail, organization skills, and strong work ethic
- Ability to support program assessment and data management

Skills and Abilities:

- Must have good interpersonal skills and ability to work independently and in a team
- Strong Oral & written communication skills
- Ability to interact tactfully with all levels of the college staff, students, and trustees
- Proficient with MS Office Suite, Google Docs, and Social Media
- Valid driver's license and Ability to drive a 11-passenger van

Work Environment: Position requires frequent evening and weekend hours as part of the Interfaith and Spiritual Exploration Center events, activities, and trainings.

Start Date and Term: The preferred start date for this position is August 2018.

Compensation: This position offers full tuition waiver for fulltime study in a Rowan University graduate program, optional on campus housing, as well as an $8000.00 annual stipend paid on a biweekly basis over the course of the contract term, and up to $1000.00 in Professional Development funding.

Application Procedure: Please submit a cover letter, resume, and the names and contact information of three references to socialjustice@rowan.edu. Applications will be reviewed starting on March 12, 2018.